

Dániel Szász

Curriculum Vitae

Daniel Szasz was born in 1972.

After graduating in Budapest as an economist, he started his career at General Motors Group, where he held various managerial and finance leadership positions since 1994 at Opel companies in Hungary and Germany. He delivered tasks of GM Daewoo Central and Eastern Europe managing director from 2002.

The executive was appointed as chief financial officer of T-Online Hungary Plc. (former Axelero Llc) effective of January 1, 2004. In the period having lapsed since then he obtained a considerable body of professional expertise in the telecommunication market and company governance. Daniel Szasz contributed to the spiraling penetration of broadband internet, which constitutes one of Magyar Telekom Group's business areas that demonstrates the most dynamic growth.

Member of Board of Directors of Crnogorski Telekom, Chairman of Board of Directors and Chairman of Management Committee of Crnogorski Telekom since 2007 he led the operation, the organizational and business transition of Crnogorski Telekom. During his mandate company introduced IPTV, mobile internet, increased significantly the broadband penetration in Montenegro and strengthened the market position in mobile segment. He also acts as Chairman of Montenegrin Foreign Investors' Council and Vice-Chairman of Montenegrin-Hungarian Business Council.