

Michael Frank

Mr. Frank (born in [redacted]) graduated as an Industrial Engineering with Business Studies from the Technical University of Karlsruhe in 2003 before gaining an additional Master degree in International Relations from the Andr ssy University Budapest in 2006. He started his career in 2004 with T-Mobile Hungary as a Regulatory Manager, then joining Detecon in 2007 as a Strategy Management Consultant with global project assignments. From 2010, he worked at Deutsche Telekom's Headquarter as a Senior Manager, first in International Public & Regulatory Affairs and later in the International Business Unit. In 2013, Mr. Frank joined Magyar Telekom as Head of Portfolio Management and since January 1, 2014, he is heading Magyar Telekom's Corporate Strategy and Portfolio Management Department.